

Leading Successful Blended and Online Learning Initiatives

Leading Successful Blended and Online Learning Initiatives is designed for district leaders who are charged with identifying the strategic planning considerations associated with the implementation of blended learning. The foundation of this course includes the six elements necessary for the successful implementation of blended learning as identified by the International Association for K-12 Online Learning (iNACOL). By examining each of these six elements, district leaders will understand how to lead decision-making in each area.

MODULE 1: LEADERSHIP

- Blended Learning Overview
- Selecting a Model
- Questions to Ask

MODULE 2: OPERATIONS

- School Day Structure
- Administrative Systems, Communication, and Support Services
- Funding

MODULE 3: TEACHING

- Promising and Best Practices
- Identifying and Supporting Blended Learning Teachers

MODULE 4: CONTENT

- Building Content
- Buying Content
- Assessing Quality

MODULE 5: TECHNOLOGY

- Infrastructure
- Providing Support

MODULE 6: PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

- Analyzing Your Training Needs
- Other Considerations

COURSE DURATION:

Six weeks, two to three hours per week.

AUDIENCE:

K-12 School Leaders

FORMAT:

One module per week for six weeks. The course is fully collaborative and facilitated.

More Information

To learn more about our program, including information about our courses for teachers, visit BlendedAndOnline.org or email contact@BlendedAndOnline.org.

Register Today!

BlendedAndOnline.org

866.PLS.CLAS (866.757.2527)